Aldeen Foundation is dedicated to expand opportunities for educational institutions to pursue excellence by focusing on teacher development, leadership development and enrichment through continuing professional education.

Professional Development Workshops

Since 1990, the goal of the workshops has been to provide stimulating new ways to reach, teach and motivate students by providing onsite PD sessions covering a range of topics from language development to classroom management.

Online Arabic Teacher Training

Since 2010, this moderated program is held three times per year and highlights the best practices and resources for teaching Arabic as a foreign language, reaching Arabic teachers nationally and internationally.

Nuraniyah Certification

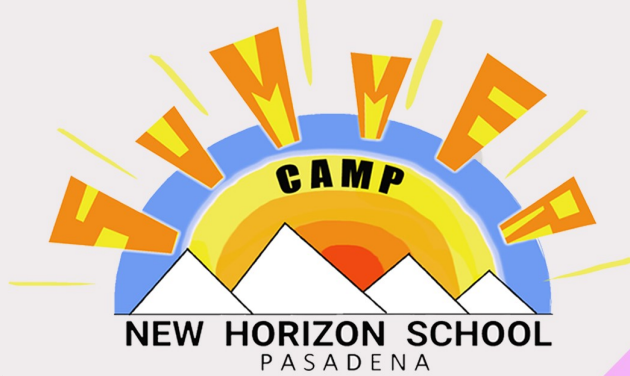

A seven day intensive training program in the Nuraniyah method is held in the winter. Participants who successfully complete the program are eligible for Nuraniyah certification.

Arabic Reader Program

The newest program, currently in development, will offer Arabic language learners the opportunity to enhance their reading skills through interactive quizzes and rewards on each reading level.
